

For more than 125 years, The University of Texas at Austin has produced self-reliant graduates prepared to become leaders in their chosen professions and communities, ready to influence change in their lifetime. Undergraduate students come to the university to learn in community with professors, researchers, staff and fellow students from all over the world. Students discover how to solve problems, take part in real world breakthroughs, and develop the skills needed to become leaders.

Popular Colleges/Schools for International Undergraduates

The McCombs School of Business (new.mcombs.utexas.edu): The McCombs School of Business is one of the most distinguished business schools in the country, consistently ranking as one of the top 10 undergraduate programs.

The College of Communication (www.communication.utexas.edu): The largest and most comprehensive communication college in the nation, the College of Communication consistently earns top rankings for research, teaching excellence and creative work.

The Cockrell School of Engineering (www.engr.utexas.edu): The Cockrell School of Engineering consistently ranks as one of the top engineering programs in the United States; the majority of Cockrell School undergraduate programs are ranked in the top 10 of their respective disciplines and all of our programs are ranked in the top 20.

The College of Natural Sciences (www.cns.utexas.edu): The College of Natural Sciences is committed to providing a high-quality, research based science education and creating an intellectually and scientifically enriched environment. Several of the programs in the college rank in the top 10 nationally.

Details about majors in these and the other undergraduate colleges/schools at the university are available at www.bealorghorn.utexas.edu/whyut/academics.

Notable Rankings for The University of Texas at Austin

According to Open Doors (from the Institute of International Education), 5,265 international students were enrolled at The University of Texas at Austin during the 2009-2010 academic year, making the university number 9 on the list of U.S. universities in terms of the number of enrolled international students.

Thirteenth-best public university in U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges 2011" guide

The 26th-best university in the world, according to a global ranking produced by the Times of London in its Oct. 28, 2005, edition. The university ranked 14th among the top North American public and private universities. The Times ranking was based, in part, on a survey of 2,375 research-active academics.

39th in the world in the August 2008 Academic Ranking of World Universities, the annual ranking by China's Shanghai Jiao Tong University.

The University of Texas System ranks number 1 for biotechnology patents among 424 universities in the world, according to the Milken Institute and its September 2006 report on universities' biotechnology research and commercialization.

Admission Requirements

DEADLINES: Summer/Fall: December 1 | Spring: October 1

Applying for International Undergraduate Admission as a First-Time Student

The Application (required)	Submit your ApplyTexas International Freshman application. www.applytexas.org
The Application Fee (required)	$90 international application processing fee; online payment preferred.
Essays	Two essays required (most students need to submit Essay A & B). www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/international/first-time/essays
Official Transcript (required)	All transcripts must bear an official original seal and signature of the school registrar or school principal. www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/international/first-time/transcripts
Test Scores (required)	Submit your official SAT I reasoning tests scores or ACT test scores and official TOEFL or IELTS score. All scores must be sent directly to UT Austin by the testing agency. (UT Austin's SAT code: 6882; ACT code: 4240; TOEFL code: 6882). www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/international/first-time/testing
Major-specific Items	Some majors may have special application requirements. www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/international/first-time/schools

Cost of Attending

The University of Texas at Austin not only offers an outstanding education, but offers it at a reasonable cost. Although the university is considered one of the best in the world, it's also considered one of the best values.

www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/whyut/basics/finances

Graduate and International Admissions Center

The university's Graduate and International Admissions Center (GIAC) serves the needs of students applying as international undergraduates as well as those applying for admission as both domestic and international graduate students.

www.bealonghorn.utexas.edu/meetus/locations/giac

International Office

Advisors in the university's International Office are aware of the demands associated with studying and living in another country. They are available to assist international students and their families in matters related to their immigration status, employment, housing, health insurance, medical care, social security, income tax regulations, financial aid, and personal concerns.

www.utexas.edu/international