COMPETITION FORMAT AND RULES BADMINTON

As of 23 JUN 2014

Youth Olympic Competition Format

The Youth Olympic competition comprises Singles, for men and women, and Mixed Doubles competitions.

All singles players must enter in the Doubles event. There are 32 players in the Singles competitions and 32 pairs in the Mixed Doubles competition.

Pairs in the Mixed Doubles event are composed of one woman and one man from different NOCs.

The Badminton competition will be played in two stages: the group play stage and the knock-out stage.

Group play stage

The players/pairs will play in groups (eight groups of four players/pairs each), where all players/pairs in a given group play against each other. A final overall ranking order for each group will be calculated. Ranking will be established by the number of matches won.

If two players/pairs have won the same number of matches, the winner of the match between them will be ranked higher.

If three or more players/pairs have won the same number of matches, ranking will be established by the difference between total games won and total games lost, with greater difference ranked higher.

If this still leaves two players/pairs equal, the winner of the match between them will be ranked higher.

If three or more players/pairs have won the same number of matches and are equal in the difference between total games won and total games lost, ranking will be established by the difference between total points won and total points lost, with greater difference ranked higher.

If two players/pairs remain tied, the winner of the match between them will be ranked higher.

If three or more players/pairs remain tied, then ranking will be established by drawing lots.

Knock-out stage

For the Singles and Mixed Doubles competition, the top ranked player/pair from each group of the group play stage will qualify to the quarter-finals.

This stage consists of head-to-head matches from which the winners advance to the next round. The only time a losing player or pair will participate in another match, is when losing semi-finalists meet in the bronze medal match.

Differences between the BWF World Junior Championships and the Youth Olympic Games

There are no differences in the general Competition Regulations and Laws of Badminton, however the format is different. The BWF World Junior Championships is a straight knockout competition whereas the Youth Olympic Games has a Round Robin format in pools leading to a knockout competition. The BWF World Junior Championships field contains more competitors due to the different quotas for member associations participation.

Changes since the Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games

The Mixed Doubles event has been included in the Badminton programme for the Nanjing 2014 Youth Olympic Games.

Sport Rules and Procedures

Toss

Before play, a toss will be conducted and the side winning the toss will choose either to serve or receive first, or choose to start play at one end of the court or the other.

Scoring system

Each match is played to the best of three games, and each game is won by the first player (or doubles pair) to score 21 points. If the score reaches 20-20, the winner will be the first player (or doubles pair) to subsequently gain a lead of two points. If the score reaches 29-29, the player (or doubles pair) to score the next point wins the game.

Penalties / Disqualification Rules

A coloured penalty card system (yellow, red and black) is used to act as a visual aid when an umpire issues a warning for misconduct or other misdemeanour.

Disqualifications in Badminton are very rare, with the most common cause being a player or pair reporting late for a match. Players can also be disqualified for returning late after the two minute break between games, or for serious or persistent misconduct, but this is equally rare.

During the match an umpire can issue a warning (and a yellow card) if a player fails to respect the laws of Badminton or the players' code of conduct.

Faults

If the player has already been warned for misconduct or when the offence is flagrant, the umpire can call a fault and issue a red card.

If the player is guilty of persistent or flagrant acts of misconduct, the Umpire will fault the offending side, and report the offending side immediately to the Referee. If the Referee decides that a disqualification is necessary, he hands a black card to the Umpire to issue to the offending side, signalling their disqualification from the match.

Protests

In Badminton the result is final once the player leaves the court. Any decision taken by the Referee is final.
