COMPETITION FORMAT AND RULES TENNIS

As of 23 JUN 2014

Youth Olympic Competition Format

The Nanjing Youth Olympic Games Tennis competition will comprise Singles, Doubles and Mixed Doubles competitions for men and women. All competitions are conducted in a single elimination format. There are 32 players in both the Men's and Women's Singles competitions, 16 teams in the Men's and Women's Doubles and 32 teams in the Mixed Doubles competitions.

Singles

Eight of 32 players are seeded. The winner of each match advances to the next round. The losers of each match are eliminated. The winners of the two semifinal matches advance to the gold medal match. The winner of this match receives the gold medal and the loser receives the silver medal. The losers of the two semifinal matches compete for the bronze medal.

All matches are played as the best-of-three tie-break sets.

Doubles

Four of the 16 teams are seeded. The winners of each match advance to the next round. The losers of each match are eliminated. The winners of the two semifinal matches advance to the gold medal match. The winners of this match receive the gold medal and the losers receive the silver medal. The losers of the two semifinal matches compete for the bronze medal.

All matches are played as the best-of-three sets, but the third set is a match tie-break. The team who first wins 10 points will win this match tie-break and the match provided there is a margin of two points over the opponents. A regular tie-break operates in the first two sets. No-Ad scoring will be used.

Mixed Doubles

Eight of the 32 teams are seeded. The winners of each match advance to the next round. The losers of each match are eliminated. The winners of the two semifinal matches advance to the gold medal match. The winners of this match receive the gold medal and the losers receive the silver medal. The losers of the two semifinal matches compete for the bronze medal.

All matches are played as the best-of-three sets, but the third set is a match tie-break. The team who first wins 10 points will win this match tie-break and the match provided there is a margin of two points over the opponents. A regular tie-break operates in the first two sets. Differences between the ITF Junior World Championships and the Youth Olympic Games

At the ITF Junior World Championships (four Grand Slam tournaments) the Singles draws are composed of 64 players and the Doubles draws of 32 teams. A Mixed Doubles event is not held at the ITF Junior World Championships.

Changes since the Singapore 2010 Youth Olympic Games

The Mixed Doubles event has been included in the Tennis programme for the Nanjing 2014 Youth Olympic Games.

The Consolation round has been removed for Singles competitions.

Sport Rules and Procedures

The Tennis competitions at the Nanjing 2014 Youth Olympic Games will be held in accordance with the ITF Rules of Tennis, the ITF Junior Circuit Regulations and the Olympic Charter, which are in force at the time of the 2014 Youth Olympic Games.

Pursuant to the Olympic Charter, the ITF assumes the responsibility for the technical control and direction of its sport at the Youth Olympic Games.

Code of Conduct

The ITF code of conduct as itemised in the 2014 ITF Junior Circuit Regulations will be enforced during the Youth Olympic Games Tennis competition

Protests

In Tennis protests are not possible. The result is final after the match.
